Waterfront TOPICS

Purser Miles reported that the barkentine Hawaii left Makawell on Saturday, September 7th, at 8:45 a. m. for Australia.

The cruiser St. Louis arrived at San Francisco on September 2, going direct to the Mare Island Navy yard. She signaled the city that all was well on board.

The tug Navigator was much admired yesterday by many who, having heard of her before too late to visit her, took the opportunity yesterday. She is surely a beautiful craft.

The license of Mate Pedersen of the Acapulco has been suspended for six months on account of the negligent way in which that steamship was loaded, which caused her to capsize while at the wharf in San Francisco.

Third Officer Keneally of the steamer Sonoma has had his license held up for six months by the inspectors for seeming negligence in not calling Captain Cousins when he sighted the schooner Advent, with which the Sonoma collided on July 6.

The bark Geo. Curtis, Captain Herbert, which has recently arrived in San Francisco from these islands with 51,150 bags of sugar, was 22 days making the trip up. On August 25 and 26 she encountered a severe storm but sustained no damage.

When the Transport Thomas comes through here from San Francisco on her way to Manila she will have on board a million and a half dollars in silver pesos. They are for use in the Philippines, and one of the largest shipments of coin ever sent across the Pacific. The mint at San Francisco has made the money under the supervision of James E. Bell.

The steamer Mikahala, Captain Gregory, arrived this morning from Kauai ports with 5000 bags K. S. M. A. sugar, 16 barrels bottles, 27 gasoline drums, 40 bags tar, 22 wine barrels, 10 beer barrels, four boxes, six bundles hides, 18 crates steel, 33 packages and 119 packages sundries.

The following sugar is awaiting shipment: K. S. M., 2500; V. K., 500; A. M., 2282, and M. S., 6000.

OPINIONS RENDERED BY SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court handed down opinions yesterday in three matters.

In the matter of William W. Bierce, Ltd., versus Clinton J. Hutchins, trustee, a case which was passed upon by the Supreme Court of the United States, on two points, and remanded to the Territorial Supreme Court for further proceedings, the motion of the plaintiff that all of the defendant's exceptions be overruled is denied. The motion for judgment for costs is allowed. The defendant came before the Territorial Supreme Court on 46 exceptions, and on only two points did the Federal Supreme Court pass. The local court says the other exceptions before this court were not passed upon owing to the conclusive character of the point erroneously decided in his favor. The Court holds that the defendant is entitled to a consideration of the other points presented by his exceptions, in so far as they are not concluded by the opinion of the Supreme Court.

In the matter of the estate of Lavinia Kapu, deceased, the order of the Circuit Judge is affirmed.

Lavinia Kapu (w) having died intestate, an administrator of her estate was appointed and one of the claims presented to him and not rejected was for $3464.05, which was secured by a mortgage on real estate. This claim with the security was assigned to the Walua Agricultural Co., Ltd., which company, before any of the debts of the decedent
